ABOUT THE TEACHERS

CHRISTIE SISTRUNK (TUESDAY TEACHER) completed the Diploma of Arts at WAAPA and has completed Bachelor of the Arts at the West Australian College of Advanced Education. Christie graduated WAAPA the same year as fellow Aussie actor, Hugh Jackman.

During her 20+ year career, Christie's enormous talent has seen her land several theatre, film and TV roles including characters on Neighbours, Blue Heelers, Lockie Leonard just to name a few. With her outstanding CV, and her overwhelmingly positive energy toward education and the performing arts, actors of any age couldn't be luckier to have a coach like Christie!

EMILY ROBB (WEDNESDAY TEACHER) is a hard working actor who graduated WAAPA (Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts) in 2008.

Since then, Emily has frequently been expressing her creative side in various productions.

During her time at WAAPA, Emily was nominated for multiple awards for her artistic and quality performances.

With a positive, warm and professional approach to the entertainment industry, Emily is an acting coach that aspiring young actors can learn so much wisdom from. We're thrilled to have Emily on board!
